

Representative Legal Matters

Jennifer B. Seale

- Counseling one of the world's largest hospitality companies regarding a global payment card breach involving thousands of impacted locations. Coordinating payment card investigation and regulator inquiries.
- Providing financial services client with advice related to its incident response plan and preparedness for a cyber incident.
- Counseling a major energy company regarding crisis management and incident response related to a network intrusion.
- Advising a global manufacturing company regarding a malware incident.
- Assisted in an internal investigation and regulator inquiries related to a network intrusion at a major exchange.
- Counseled one of the world's largest providers of banking and payment services with respect to a significant cyber attack.
- Advised a leading financial institution regarding crisis management related to a significant cyber threat.
- Conducted an internal investigation for a multinational energy corporation regarding allegations that employees were involved in the theft of trade secrets.
- Advised a major energy company regarding the company's response to an alleged cyber threat.
- Advised a major telecommunications provider regarding an investigation by the Office of the Inspector General of the United States General Services Administration and United States Department of Justice.
- Counseled one of the nation's largest oil and gas companies with respect to a Congressional investigation into hydraulic fracturing.
- Advised a manufacturer of air conditioning and heating products with respect to an enforcement action by the United States Department of Energy.