

Representative Legal Matters

Kenneth Quinn

- Japan Air Lines on USD 7 billion terminal re-development at JFK airport.
- AIA on an all-cargo, perishable goods: airport in Hendry County, FL.
- IAG, British Airways, Iberia, and Aer Lingus on acquisition, alliance and antitrust immunity.
- Delta in successful litigation in DC Circuit, 5th Circuit, Northern District of Texas, and FAA in a dispute with the City of Dallas and Southwest over flights at Love Field.
- Facebook on a wide variety of drone projects, including a project to increase connectivity through use of high-altitude, solar-powered drones.
- Zee Aero and Kitty Hawk on development of manned aircraft systems using drone technology.
- GS Yuasa, a Kyoto, Japan battery manufacturer relating to FAA, NTSB, and JTSB investigations, claims, Paris ICDR arbitration, and other matters arising out of the Boeing 787 Dreamliner battery incidents and grounding.
- Highstar and Oaktree Capital in the equity purchase then sale of equity in Aerostar, the groundbreaking public-private partnership for the long-term lease and management of Luis Muñoz Marín International Airport in San Juan, Puerto Rico.
- GECAS, ACG, and other aircraft lessor on FAA policy issues and international aircraft transferability issues.
- Monday, Vornado, Related Companies, JDS, NextEra and several large real estate developers and wind-turbine, renewable energy providers in FAA airspace hazard determinations.
- Bombardier in asset sales, certification, litigation, and enforcement matters.
- Dozens of companies involving the commercial and military use of drones, including accident/incidents and the first grant of a night-time commercial drone operation.
- Represented the largest airport passenger screening and security companies after 9/11.
- Represented multiple clients in FAA and NTSB investigations and criminal prosecutions after airline crashes, including major airlines, aerospace manufacturers, and repair stations, including in the successful defense of SabreTech in Federal and state enforcement and criminal prosecutions following the ValuJet 592 crash.