

Representative Legal Matters

Mark McCrone

- Representation of investor against the Republic of Croatia relating to the expropriation of a manufacturing company.
- Representation of investor against Venezuela relating to the expropriation of an oil and gas related enterprise.
- Representation of investor in CAFTA arbitration against the Dominican Republic relating to the expropriation and unfair treatment by the Republic against a resort.
- Representation of liquefied natural gas company and affiliates in three separate arbitrations over LNG pricing disputes and price reopening clauses.
- Representation of leading industrial maintenance company in ICC arbitration under New York law relating to contractual pricing formulas.
- Representation of Chinese state-owned entity in ICC arbitration relating to ongoing payment dispute between the parties.
- Representation of the Bank of Mongolia in racketeering and fraud claims against various persons and entities in connection with fraudulent issuance of financial instruments.
- Representation of the Mongolian Government in investment dispute arbitration claims by owners of mining license for iron mines.
- Representation of international developer in claim against the Philippines for the expropriation without compensation of the principal airport terminal in Manila.
- Representation of plaintiffs in racketeering and breach of contract actions in federal court in DC.
- Representation of an international professional licensing company in a breach of contract, copyright and trademark dispute regarding licensing exam materials.
- Representation of an international commercial vehicle parts manufacturer in antitrust case filings before the Department of Justice.