

Representative Legal Matters

Veleka Peebles-Dyer

- Regularly advise global biopharmaceutical companies on FDA and healthcare compliance related matters in licensing and collaboration agreements and acquisitions
- Assisted a global biopharmaceutical client with product recall, field alerts and other related communications with the FDA
- Assisted a private equity company in the acquisition of major US product line.
- Drafted and negotiated pharmacovigilance agreement for a global biopharmaceutical license, collaboration and co-development agreement
- Provided advice and counsel to a global biopharmaceutical company on alliance management programs that involve licensing arrangements with other companies to develop and commercialize products internationally
- Assisted global companies with the development and implementation of corporate compliance programs, including various policies and procedures to support the development and commercialization of drugs and combination products
- Provided advice and counsel to global biopharmaceutical companies on cGMP, FDA inspection preparation and response, and implementation and execution of corrective and preventative action plans
- Assisted global pharmaceutical companies with all pre-launch planning, including the development of a compliance program, clinical trial matters and medical, legal and regulatory review of all company materials
- Advised on various FDA regulatory and compliance matters in the merger of a large Japanese pharma and a US biotechnology company
- Provided advice and counsel on FDA regulatory due diligence matters to a private equity company in investment in network of compounding pharmacies
- Provided FDA and healthcare regulatory due diligence counsel to a private equity company in acquisition of a major contract manufacturer for the biopharmaceutical industry
- Provided regular legal and compliance advice and counsel to a life sciences support services company
- Advised global pharmaceutical company on acquisition of pharmaceutical products into existing company portfolio