

Representative Legal Matters

Roger Thomi

- Represents a Swiss subsidiary of a global construction company in an ongoing investigation of the Swiss Competition Commission.
- Represented Hitachi Ltd on its USD 11 billion acquisition of the ABB Power Grid business in the Swiss merger control proceeding before the Swiss Competition Commission.
- Advised a multinational biotechnology company on its new global distribution contract for the international distribution of medicines.
- Advised a major international access solutions company in multinational merger control proceedings.
- Advises a major international travel agency on antitrust compliance.
- Advises a major international beer brewer on competition law issues.
- Represented and advised a major Swiss bank on a merger control filing before the Swiss Competition Commission.
- Successfully settled a pre-investigation of the Swiss Competition Commission against a manufacturer of consumer goods.
- Represented and advised an international energy and commodities trading company on a merger control filing before the Swiss Competition Commission.
- Advises a major international insurance company on antitrust compliance.
- Advised a multinational producer of beverage in connection with the creation of an international beverage joint venture with head office in Switzerland.
- Advised an international travel agency on non-compete issues in connection with a joint venture in Switzerland.
- Regularly advises the board of a medium-sized globally active Swiss plant manufacturer and engineering company on various commercial and corporate law matters.
- Regularly advises clients on antitrust aspects of non-compete agreements in connection with joint ventures, mergers and other transactions.