

Representative Legal Matters

Ean Stuart Mac Pherson

- Acted for a global offshore wind developer in its entry into the Japanese market.
- Advised a leading foreign renewable energy company on the development of a Japanese offshore wind project.
- Acted for a US electricity retailer which was the first foreign retailer to obtain a retail license in Japan, including assisting on their establishment, retail license and electricity supply arrangements in Japan.
- Acted for a foreign electricity wholesale company to establish its trading operations in the Japanese market.
- Acted for a US smart grid operator which will provide cloud based smart grid services to a major Japanese utility.
- Acted for a European EPC contractor on the acquisition and EPC contracts for a 20 MW project in central Japan and an 800kw solar project in Kyushu.
- Acted for a foreign IPP company on its acquisition and development of a 22 MW solar project in Northern Japan.
- Acted for a foreign solar project company in its acquisition of a 25 MW project in Fukushima, Japan.
- Acted for a foreign solar project company on the acquisition of a 200MW portfolio of solar project development rights in Japan
- Acted for a foreign company in the structuring and agreements for a 10MW solar power project in Hiroshima, Japan.
- Acted for a Japanese utility which was the successful bidder in the 2007 Thai IPP process.
- Acted for a Japanese utility in its investment in 2 SPP projects in Thailand.
- Acted for a Japanese utility on its investment in 2 biomass power projects in Thailand and 1 biomass project in Malaysia.
- Acted for a Japanese wind energy company in its acquisition of an Australian wind farm project.
- Acted a Japanese trading company on the restructuring of its investment in a marine fuel company with operations in Singapore, the United States and the Middle East and that fuel company's subsequent IPO on the Singapore Stock Exchange.
- Represented a Japanese cornerstone investor acquiring a substantial shareholding interest in an Australian coal company on its IPO on the Australian Stock Exchange.
- Acted for Japanese investors in more than 10 coal mine acquisitions and interest sales in Australia, Indonesia and Canada.
- Acted for a Japanese utility acquiring an equity interest in a major West Australian LNG project.
- Represented a Japanese trading company acquiring a 29.8% interest in a listed French automobile distributor.