

Representative Legal Matters

Andrew Ketner

Mergers, Acquisitions and Divestitures

- Represented the North American arm of a global industrial gas company in connection with its strategic acquisition of a Turboexpander business unit.
- Represented a leading US rooftop solar company in its sale to a group of private equity investors.
- Represented a private equity firm and its portfolio company in connection with the bolt-on acquisition of a leading regional HVAC company.
- Represented an international chemical company in the sale of its Cariflex business unit through a competitive auction process.
- Represented a private equity company in connection with its acquisition of oil and gas assets in the US.
- Represented a UK-based renewable energy developer in connection with the acquisition of a proposed 700 MW solar project in West Texas.
- Represented a private equity-funded oilfield tool manufacturer in connection with its acquisition of an oilfield services company and concurrent amendments to its senior credit facility.
- Represented an aluminum products manufacturer with global operations in its sale to a private equity company.

Joint Ventures and Project Development

- Represented a sustainable infrastructure fund in connection with the structuring and implementation of a joint venture to acquire and operate a 2.3-gigawatt portfolio of US wind and solar projects.
- Represented a private equity company in connection with the formation of a joint venture to acquire and develop oil and gas assets in Texas.
- Represented an international oilfield services company in connection with the formation of a joint venture to develop and commercialize downhole drilling technology.
- Represented a private equity-funded waste processing company in connection with the formation of a joint venture with a Fortune 500 waste management company to commercialize waste-to-energy processing concept.
- Represented a private equity-funded environmental services company in connection with the development of slurry injection and oilfield waste disposal facilities in West Texas.