

Representative Legal Matters

Junya Ae

- Represented Japanese and foreign companies in international and domestic cartel investigations across a wide range of industries, including chemical products, construction materials, electric wires, bid rigging in government procurement, automotive products and services and electronics products, and in related civil litigation (eg, class action lawsuits in the US and Canada and follow-on damage claims in Europe). Recent cases in which Junya has been involved include the following:
  - Represented and advised a number of Japanese automotive component manufacturers in relation to cartel investigations and follow-on damage claims (Japan, US, EU, China, Brazil, Canada, etc.).
  - Represented and advised a Japanese electronic component manufacturer in relation to cartel investigations and follow-on damage claims (Japan, US, EU, China, Taiwan, Singapore, etc.).
- Represented numerous Japanese and foreign companies in multijurisdictional merger control matters, including complex cases involving remedies. Recent cases in which Junya has been involved include the following:
  - Represented and advised a leading Japanese trust bank in relation to its acquisition of Australian asset management companies.
  - Represented and advised a leading Japanese financial institution in relation to its acquisition of a commercial bank in Indonesia.
  - Represented and advised a Japanese life insurance company in relation to its acquisition of a life insurance company in the US.
  - Represented and advised a Japanese leasing company in relation to its acquisition of the Japan finance business of a multinational conglomerate.
  - Represented and advised a Japanese trading company in relation to its overseas acquisitions and in the establishment of joint ventures overseas.
  - Represented and advised a Japanese electronic components manufacturer in relation to its acquisition of both domestic and overseas competitors.
  - Represented and advised Japanese glass manufacturers in relation to their acquisitions of overseas competitors.

Baker McKenzie.

- Represented and advised a multinational EMS in relation to its acquisition of a Japanese electronics manufacturer.
- Represented and advised multinational pharmaceutical / medical device manufacturers in relation to their acquisitions of competitors.
- Supported and implemented compliance investigations for chemical companies, automotive component companies and food companies, among others.