

Representative Legal Matters

Ryosuke Tateishi

- Assisted a multinational pharmaceutical company in connection with supply of COVID 19-related products to Japan.
- Assisted a US biopharmaceutical company in collaboration project for development and commercialization of Alzheimer-related products.
- Assisted a regenerative medical products manufacturer in establishing and implementing compliance program.
- Provided legal and compliance support for companies developing robotic technologies in healthcare industry.
- Provided legal and compliance support for technology companies and medical device companies in connection with development and supply of wearable devices and relevant healthcare software.
- Assisted a US medical device manufacturer with dispute resolution, crisis management, internal investigation and compliance, including anti-bribery policy compliance.
- Assisted a UK pharmaceutical company in establishing a compliance program concerning off-label information disclosure.
- Assisted a US pharmaceutical company in establishing a compliance program concerning advertising, including disease awareness activities.
- Assisted a US pharmaceutical company in conducting a "deep dive" compliance audit.
- Provided legal advice and assisted a number of pharmaceutical companies and medical device companies in license agreements and collaboration transactions.
- Provided legal supports for pharmaceutical companies in research and development projects performed in collaboration with Japanese academic institutions.
- Provided legal advice to a US medical device company regarding a product liability dispute.
- Provided legal advice to pharmaceutical companies and medical device companies regarding compliance with the Clinical Research Act.
- Assisted a number of pharmaceutical companies in reviewing promotional materials and provided instruction and advice about the implementation of sales information provision activities as an external member of the Pharmaceutical Company Review and Supervisory Committee.
- Provided legal advices for OTC drug companies and food companies in connection with compliance with Act against Unjustifiable Premiums and Misleading Representations.
- Provided legal advices for pharmaceutical companies in connection with authorized generic projects from perspective of competition law.

Baker McKenzie.

- Assisted a domestic energy company, an electrical appliance company and a trading house in establishing anti-bribery policy compliance programs and provided anti-bribery training.
- Represented an investment company and a bank in litigation concerning derivative products.
- Represented a domestic wholesale company in establishing a joint venture company in Vietnam.
- Represented a Japanese illumination company in establishing a joint venture company in Japan.
- Assisted a Japanese company in litigation in the Middle East region concerning the termination of a distributorship.
- Assisted toy, sporting goods and food manufacturers with product recalls and with the handling of related mass media announcements.